

Czechoslovak News Agency
Photo Service.

Prague, July 4th 1955

CPYRGHT

SECOND DAY OF THE FIRST NATIONAL SPARTAKIADE SENIORS DAYS.

The second day of the First National Spartakiade Seniors Day passed very successfully, From the earliest afternoon hours almost 240.000 spectators filled the Strahov Stadium to see about 60.000 gymnasts from various sports organisations perform their high art. It was hard to say which of the performances was the best. All were beautiful and impressive.

The second day of the Seniors Days, as well as the whole Spartakiade demonstrated that Czechoslovakia's people is a healthy, splendid and peaceloving people.

105.562/13 One of the roads, leading to the Strahov Stadium, crowded by people, anxious to see the performance of the Seniors on July 3rd 1955. The stadium has been sold out, so that some people had to go back home without seeing the wonderful mass-exercises.

105.560/122 Lovely and precise were the exercises of the "Sokol" gymnasts.

105.561/26 Guests from abroad on the tribune of honour watching the Spartakiade parade. ----

hv/lus